1 FOREWORD's

As President of the European Ju Jitsu Union , I am very pleased to welcome you in Gliwice Poland.\

I wish complete success to all delegations, it will be the first Europeans in NoGi JiuJitsu Ne Waza.

I sincerely hope that these two days of competition can show the JiuJitsu and JuJitsu world that we, JJEU proud member of JJIF, can organize with our Local Partners excellent events.

At each international competition, the number of countries and fighters is constantly increasing, proving the vitality of Jiu Jitsu through our continents, let the first Europeans a great event, I wish all of you good luck and a lot of sucesess.

Robert Perc
JJEU President
JJIF Vice President

JU-JITSU

2019 EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP GLIWICE POLAND

Ladies and gentlemen, dear sports friends,

Ahead of us is another great event - first time - the Jiu-Jitsu Ne Waza NoGi European Championship 2019 in Gliwice for U14, U16, U18, U21, Adults and Masters.

One more time we have got the great opportunity to hosting a championship-level event. Is an excellent opportunity to promote the brand of Poland on the international scale. Thus, I am particularly pleased that this event will be held in our country for the first time in history. Poland has already proven its ability to host - with great organizational success - sport events such as JJEU Ju-Jitsu European Championship 2018 with over 300 participants from 22 countries or JJIF Ju-Jitsu World Championship for Adults 2016 or The World Games 2017. Over 500 athletes and also 40 referees, 100 volunteers, coaches, medical staff, physiotherapists, officials and a lot of sports fans took part in the JJIF Ju-Jitsu World Championship in Wrocław.

The Ju-Jitsu NoGi European Championship, scheduled for December 2019, will be the main event of the championship rank in our country this year.

We hope that the Polish Team will prove once again its highest position in the world of Ju-Jitsu, as it has done many times before, by gaining many significant achievements in single and team Gi competition.

Sports events like this bring a lot of positive emotions. There is nothing that unites and affects people better than the success of their country's athletes, wearing the national emblem – for Polish athletes, a white eagle – on their chests.

I do believe that this sporting event and the emotions ensured by the athletes will become an unforgettable experience for a long time.

With sporting regards,

Tomasz Knap

President of Polish Ju-Jitsu Association
